

BroadTree Ltd Disclaimer Form

BroadTree Forest School sessions involve spending time outdoors in nature and proceed in almost all weather. Activities include using woodland materials to create artwork, building and cooking on fires, climbing trees, exploration and running games, tool use (including knives and saws) and shelter building.

Taking part in BroadTree Forest School sessions is conditional on the individuals recognising the potential for misadventure and/or personal injury. Participants must be aware of and accept these risks, and agree to hold responsibility for their own actions and involvement.

I consent for my child to receive first aid if deemed appropriate by the session first aider, and for my child to receive emergency treatment from healthcare professionals.

I declare that in the event of any claim of compensation for an incident, the claim will only be against another party directly involved in that incident. No compensation will be sought from the Company or directors unless they are found, by law, to have acted in a grossly negligent or illegal manner.

To keep everyone safe BroadTree collect & record personal data including, but not limited to, next of kin contact details, medical conditions (allergies, diabetes, etc) and write up general and specific session reports as required. This data will never be sold, and is only shared with schools or organisations that have contracted BroadTree to run sessions for them. For more information please see our privacy policy at BroadTree.co.uk/Privacy

I Do / Do Not (delete as appropriate) consent to the use of photographs and videos showing my child’s likeness in social media content and similar publicly-available reports for promotional and educational purposes.

Please email me on about future school holiday events. (Leave blank if you do not want to be contacted)
